

7th-12th Grade Surveys & TDV
Pre-Program Evaluation

Circle your answers below:

I am a: MALE FEMALE

Grade: 7 8 9 10 11 12

1. Do you date? YES NO

2. Have you ever been afraid of a date? YES NO

3. How many times have you been physically abused (kicked, shoved, hit, strangled etc.) on a date?

Never 1-2 times 3-5 times 6 or more times

4. How many times have you been verbally abused (such as using threatened or putdown) on a date?

Never 1-2 times 3-5 times 6 or more times

5. How many times has your date abused you by trying to control you (for example, by trying to choose your friends, what you do with your time or what you wear?)

Never 1-2 times 3-5 times 6 or more times

6. How many times have you been sexually abused on a date (for example forced to be involved in sexual activity that you have said you are not comfortable with?)

Never 1-2 times 3-5 times 6 or more times

7. Who have you asked for help about the dating abuse for yourself?

Nobody Parent Friend Teacher Counselor Other Doesn't Apply

8. How many of your friends have been victims of any kind of dating violence?

None 1-2 3-5 6 or more

9. How many times have you helped a friend who is having problems with dating abuse?

None 1-2 3-5 6 or more

10. Do you receive information about Teen Dating Violence at School? YES NO

If yes, where do you receive this information? _____

Please read each scenario and check the statement you believe best answers the question.

Scenarios courtesy of PsycTESTS is a database of the American Psychological Association

Scenario 1: Jose is walking to his next class when he sees his girlfriend, Linda talking to another boy in the hallway.

What is Jose thinking?

- a. His girlfriend is “cheating on him” with the other guy.
- b. His girlfriend is flirting with the other guy to make him jealous.
- c. His girlfriend is asking the other boy about a school project.
- d. He does not care because the other boy is probably his girlfriend’s good friend.

What should Jose do?

- a. He should fight the other boy.
- b. He should pull her away from the other boy and curse her out.
- c. He should say “hi” to his girlfriend and the other boy.
- d. He should continue going to his class.

Scenario 2: Veronica called her boyfriend, Mark, at 8:00 p.m., as she usually does, but Mark’s little sister answered the phone and told Veronica that Mark “was out” and didn’t know when he would return.

What is Veronica thinking?

- a. Her boyfriend is out “partying” with another girl.
- b. Her boyfriend told his little sister to lie because he doesn’t want to talk to her.
- c. Her boyfriend is home and wants to talk to her but his little sister is lying to be mean to her brother.
- d. Her boyfriend is at the grocery store.

What should Veronica do?

- a. She should break up with him.
- b. She should go to his house or look around for him.
- c. She should call him back later.
- d. She should talk to him the next day.

Scenario 3: Maria sees her boyfriend, Julio, in the hallway between classes and goes over to say “hi” to him. When she gets near him, she smells girl’s perfume on Julio.

What is Maria thinking?

- a. He was kissing another girl.
- b. He is trying to make her jealous by wearing girl’s perfume.
- c. He accidentally put on his sister’s perfume instead of his own cologne.
- d. He was near a girl that had a lot of perfume on.

What should Maria do?

- a. She should slap him.
- b. She should break up with him.
- c. She should ask him why he smells like perfume.
- d. She should ignore the smell of perfume and continue talking to him.

Scenario 4: Rick saw his girlfriend, Susan, give her telephone number to another boy.

What is Rick thinking?

- a. His girlfriend has another boyfriend.
- b. His girlfriend likes the other guy and wants him to call her.
- c. His girlfriend and the other boy need to talk later because they have a school project together.
- d. His girlfriend will miss class and needs for the other boy to get her the school assignment.

What should Rick do?

- a. He should pull her away from the boy by her hair.
- b. He should cheat on her as a “payback.”
- c. He should say “hi” to his girlfriend and the other boy and ask if he can help her.
- d. He should not worry about it and go to his class.

Thank You!