

Coping in Crisis Questions: Middle School

Pick 2 of 4

Gender Issues
Income Inequality
Special Needs
Racism and Bias

Gender Issues

I saw someone who was treated unfairly because of their gender.

The students at my school treated people with respect regardless of gender.

Students at my school tried to stop sexist behavior.

I knew what to do if I was a witness to sexist behavior.

I was hopeful that if I told my teachers about any sexism that's happening, they would do something about it.

I felt safe talking to a teacher or school employee about any sexist behavior I see.

Income Inequality

I saw a student treated unfairly because they seemed poor.

Students at my school treated others respectfully no matter how much money they have.

Students at my school tried to stop bullying that was based on family income.

I knew what to do if I was a witness to bullying against someone because of how much money they have.

I was hopeful that if I told my teachers about anyone being bullied for being poor, they would do something about it.

I felt safe talking to a teacher or school employee about any bullying I saw toward poorer students.

Student ID: _____

Racism and Bias

I saw racist behavior from students at my school.

My school has been a place where racial differences are appreciated.

I knew what to do if I saw someone being bullied because of their race.

Students at my school tried to stop racist bullying.

I was hopeful that if I told my teachers about anyone being bullied because of their race, they would do something about it.

I felt safe talking to a teacher or school employee about any racist bullying I saw.

Special Needs

Students at my school who have special needs were treated unfairly.

The students at my school treated those with special needs respectfully.

I felt comfortable standing up for someone being bullied because they have special needs.

Students at my school tried to stop bullying against those with special needs.

I was hopeful that if I told my teachers about anyone being bullied because they have special needs, they would do something about it.

I felt safe talking to a teacher or school employee about any bullying I saw against those with special needs.